

The Power Utilities have proven to us that they don't take much interest in halting interference to Amateur Radio. I have gotten unacceptable replies when I have complained about the Power Line interference. They just put forth a "smoke screen" type of effort in improving interference problems.

So if the BPL is approved the situation will be unbearable. \

Charlie. Brown, N9RU
Amateur Radio
713 W Spruce #161
Deming, NM 88030